For School Students (Classes 7–12)

1. A Letter to Her Future

Write a short letter (150–200 words) to a girl of school going age in India—wishing her courage, choices, and opportunity.

2. Break the Bias – My Small Action

Identify one gender stereotype you notice and share one small action you can take to challenge it.

3. She Inspires Me – Mini Tribute

Create a short tribute to a girl or woman who inspires you—at home, in school, or in society.

For College Students & Youth (18+)

4. Fact vs Reality: Girls in India

Share one data point on girls in India (education, health, safety, nutrition) and reflect on what surprised you.

5. If I Were Designing a Safer World for Girls

Propose one idea—policy, community action, education, or technology—that could make life safer or fairer for girls.

How to Participate

Choose one activity, submit your work online, and add your voice to a collective stand for girls' rights and futures.
